

Dear _____,

I know it's hard for you with me being in prison. I have recently met some people who genuinely care about our struggles. Many of them also have relatives or friends in prison. They are building Christian communities both inside and outside the prison.

The community is called Kairos (it means God's Special Time), and I recently went to one of their retreats held here. They also have retreats for female relatives and friends of the incarcerated called Kairos Outside which are done at camps, retreat centers or churches.

Women, some of whom also have incarcerated relatives or friends, lead the retreats (also called Weekends). The Weekend is held Friday night through Sunday afternoon.

The Weekend is free. They will provide transportation for you to and from the Weekend if needed. And, if needed, they may be able to help pay for a babysitter (they can't recommend a sitter).

I have filled out a Guest Reservation Form and sent or given the Guest Reservation Form to Kairos Outside of Eastern Washington. I had a wonderful time on my Kairos Weekend, and I believe you would really enjoy and benefit from going to Kairos Outside. You will meet women who understand your struggles, and they won't expect anything from you.

As soon as the ladies of Kairos Outside receive your Guest Reservation Form someone from Kairos Outside will be calling you to talk about attending a Weekend. They will tell you when and where their next weekend will be, and they will answer any questions you may have. In the meantime, I am sending you one of their brochures so you can read it and learn more about the Kairos Outside program and the Weekend.

Love,

(Name of person sending the letter)
